"Absolutely Fantastic"

We stayed at Combrew Farm in Rose Barn Cottage for a 65th Birthday celebration with my two children and their partners and family. The accommodation was fantastic, the facilities were amazing and the Host were different but unobtrusive and gave us lots of hints on where to visit and local eating places. Our party consisted of different age groups ranging from 67, 39, 35, 19, 12, 8 and a baby of 15 months. The facilities catered for them all with table tennis, air hockey, darts and pool table, a fabulous swimming pool which was hot, clean and had jet waves that you could adjust to your own requirements. It also had a small gym which is going to be extended in the very near future with further equipment and facilities. It also had a play area with swings etc. and outside eating area. The accommodation was brilliant with a table in one of the kitchens that seated 12 comfortable and everything you could possible want in the kitchen, washing machine, dishwasher, tumble dryer, full size fridge/freezer ..... There was not one thing we could fault, thank you for a really fabulous holiday. Mr S, St. Albans, left on Mar 17, 2016 for a stay in Mar 2016

"5* Luxury - The Roundhouse"

We arrived to a clean and luxurious 5 bed cottage with plenty of room for the 4 adults and 4 teenagers. The cottage definitely had the "wow" factor We made use of the lovely warm pool, games room (darts, pool, air hockey) after dinner and it did get very competitive. The gym was a great way to start the morning! Unfortunately we didn't get time to use the tennis courts, trampolines or library. Although we made time to feed the rabbits! We hired mountain bikes from Ross (son of Sue & John) for the day and headed off on the Tarka Trail. We briefly stopped at Fremington Quay (across the road from Combrew Lane) to take in the views and continued to Instow where there were a couple of local pubs and shops along the seafront as well as lovely restaurants which specialise in fresh seafood. The cottage is in a quiet and peaceful location with Barnstaple town centre 10 mins away by car and there is a local Sainsbury's close by. The location is also ideal for visiting Clovelly, Appledore, Bideford etc. Mrs H, London, left on Apr 3, 2016 for a stay in Mar 2016
