Out Of Season Breaks - so relaxing!

Winters Beauty

Mountain Bikes

Just added to our extensive range of onsite facilities are an impressive selection of brand new mountain bikes for all to enjoy. Bikes are available for adults, teenagers and children, together with safety helmets and cycle locks. Our close proximity to the famous Tarka Trail - a 180 mile dedicated cycling and walking track where you can take in the splendid North Devon scenery and stop off along the way to enjoy a refreshing drink, snack or pub lunch at one of the many hostelrys along the way. There is also a cafe, Fremington Quay Cafe, www.fremingtonquay.co.uk, at nearby Fremington Quay where you join the Tarka Trail, which is open all day and serves a delicious selection of freshly prepared food and drinks. Cycling is great fun and provides relaxation, gentle exercise and fun and can be enjoyed whatever the weather at any time of year. Be sure to sample the Tarka Trail whilst enjoying your holiday at Combrew!

Xmas - be quick!

Christmas and New Year have booked early this year with our regular guest's keen to ensure that they do not miss the festive season at Combrew. Currently Tucker's Retreat and Courtyard Cottage, our two luxury 2 bedroom cottages, are available for the Christmas week, however New Year is already fully booked.

With prices held at last year's rates despite the VAT rise, book now to avoid disappointment! We are always happy for our guests to book now for next Christmas or New Year. A small deposit ensures that you do not miss out on your chosen well earned festive holiday.

The Instow Arms

New to the North Devon pub/ restaurant scene the contemporary styled Instow Arms, launched late last Autumn has been an amazing success. Overlooking the beach at nearby Instow, just 3 miles away, you are assured of a warm welcome and convivial atmosphere together with an array of well prepared fresh local produce, an ever changing specials board, together with a range of local beers and ciders. There is an excellent wine list too! There are many seating areas, upstairs where you can enjoy spectacular views, downstairs beside the log burner, or on the glass paneled front deck or rear beer garden - ideal for al fresco dining and drinking. Food is available all day, everyday, starting with a scrumptious breakfast from 9am, all the way through to last food orders at 9.30pm. Visit at any time of day - even pop in whilst cycling the nearby Tarka Trail for refreshment or a relaxing lunch.

Book now for 2012 and don't miss out on a Combrew Farm holiday

Short breaks

Outside of the main season during late Autumn, Winter and early Spring short breaks are available. If you don't have time to spend a whole week at Combrew why not come along for a few days and relax in one of our luxury cottages and enjoy the superb onsite facilities - all of which are open all year round. Swim in our luxury pool and spa, relax in the Tylarium steam sauna, or play a game of badminton or tennis, tone up in the fitness room or cycle the Tarka Trail on one of our new mountain bikes. Whatever you decide you are spoilt for choice here at Combrew! Consider your dates and requirements and either e.mail or phone 01271 373834 for details, availability and tariffs. You will be amazed at the value of a luxury short break at Combrew.

Phone

In these days of electronic communication many customers are reluctant to call, however we delight in offering a personal service and we are always happy to discuss your requirements in order that you select the cottage/s most suited to your requirements. When phoning should there be an answer phone please do leave a short message and your contact phone number and we will soon get back to you.

Whatever you need to know please feel free to call ( 01271 373834 ) anytime, day or evening, up until 10pm.

T.V's

We have updated the T.V's in all cottages to the very latest LED widescreen technology, important for family viewing when returning from an enjoyable day out and essential for those winter evenings when sitting relaxing beside the real wood log burner. Depending on cottage they range from 37" through 42" to an impressive 47" in The Roundhouse - rest assured we have selected the largest T.V best suited for your viewing enjoyment.
