Fremington Quay Cafe

Fremington Quay Cafe, just minutes from Combrew and beside the renowned Tarka Trail, is perfect for that freshly cooked breakfast, morning coffee, lunch or afternoon tea. Our guests often enjoy the cafe and return time and again to sample the famous Devon cream tea, relaxing whilst enjoying the fine coastal views. On offer are many delights to tempt you, and the produce used in preparing the many home cooked foods are locally sourced wherever possible. Being so near a tempting treat is never far away! Drop in before or after your walk or cycle along The Tarka Trail, a 180 mile dedicated scenic path, with spectacular landscapes little changed from those famously described in Henry Williamson's novel, Tarka the Otter. Our own quality Specialized mountain bikes are perfect for you to ride on the Tarka Trail.

What's New

We always like to make sure that your time at Combrew is truly special and during the year many changes and improvements have again been made.

The Roundhouse now has a spectacular all new oak kitchen with dining room extension, where a large table comfortably seats 14 - ideal when booking The Roundhouse together with the adjoining Tucker's Retreat or nearby Courtyard Cottage. In the lounge a sumptuous grand sofa has replaced the table on the raised and balustraded former dining space creating a comfortable area ideal for reading and relaxing.

Upstairs the main family bathroom has been refitted and now includes a large luxury walk in shower. Tucker's Retreat meanwhile has been upgraded with an all new oak kitchen and utility room, with the floor as in The Roundhouse now having a natural stone travertine floor. Upstairs a luxury en-suite shower room with an invigorating air boost power shower has been added to the master bedroom.

Barn Owl has been totally refurbished including an all new large luxury curved glass shower to the en-suite in the master bedroom, and after Christmas Rose Cottage will close to have a full makeover upstairs to complement the new contemporary style downstairs. A very welcome addition has been the Wi-Fi which is now wired and available in every cottage - visit soon and relax and enjoy the latest at Combrew for yourself.
