Be Quick!

With bookings for the current year at record levels we have just a few weeks available between now and the main summer break - just check availability on our

The Instow Arms

Overlooking the lovely sandy beach at nearby Instow, the Instow Arms is a real favourite with many of our regular customers and with ever changing daily specials, many featuring freshly caught local fish, together with an extensive regular menu, you will be spoilt for choice - you may find that you have to go more than once during your stay! There is an extensive wine list and a very well stocked bar, which includes local ales and cider. On your next visit to Combrew why not visit the Instow Arms, which is open all day, every day. Whether cycling past on the nearby Tarka Trail for breakfast, morning coffee or lunch, or for a special evening meal with family or friends you are always assured of a warm welcome. If you have a special occasion please do book in advance - it is very popular, especially at weekends and during the main holiday season.

2016

Just gone online are our 2016 tariffs, and being little changed from this year why not reserve your dates now to ensure you get your chosen time. An initial deposit now of just £100 reserves a week in any cottage for next year. A few dates are already booked, and so if you have an important date or are considering the very popular February half term, Easter, May Bank holiday, summer weeks or the real special time at Combrew - the festive season - it would be wise to plan ahead and book soon whilst still available. We love to welcome back our very valued regular customers and it is always disappointing for us when your chosen date is unavailable.

"Fantastic - soooo sad to leave"

Rose Cottage, reviewed March 22, 2015

"WOW! Great accommodation, comfy beds, clean, well equipped, quiet and peaceful. The pool was wonderful, warmest pool we have been in, love the bubbles at the one end. Our grandson loved the play area and feeding the huge rabbit! The weather was very kind to us so we didn't make full use of the other facilities, but we will when we return next year. Great location, easy to go off exploring north Devon. Could go on and on about how wonderful it is and how much we enjoyed ourselves and how sad we were to leave but highly recommend you book and try it yourselves! We will definitely be returning."

"Superb value for money, don't miss out!"

Tuckers Retreat, reviewed March 23, 2015

"Everything you could wish for, beautiful cottage, spotlessly clean and very well maintained we enjoyed another totally chilled out stay at Combrew Farm, this place really is a jewel in North Devon, Sue & John make sure your stay is so comfortable you don't want to leave! Everything is within walking distance or a short drive away. we stayed in Tuckers cottage again, lots of little extras surprise you, from fresh eggs from the chickens to biscuits to have with your first cuppa after a long journey. We took the dog this time which made the long walks even more enjoyable and when we got back we were able to relax in the jacuzzi before dinner, where else can you do this without paying top hotel prices? Superb value for money we will definitely return."
