Welcome to Summer!

Summer has now arrived and where better than Combrew to enjoy warm sunny days relaxing with family and friends.

Being centrally located for the myriad on offer in North Devon means that you are just minutes away from the coast and wonderful sandy beaches, yet close to Barnstaple, England's oldest borough, for when a spot of shopping beckons.

This summer promises to be one of long sunny days and with our many nearby beaches you don't have to travel far for your holiday fun. Whether you enjoy swimming, surfing, kayaking, sunbathing or just a paddle, picnic and a peaceful stroll, you are never far from a beautiful sandy beach at Combrew. Most have pubs and restaurants nearby, many serving freshly prepared local produce, perfect during or after your day at the beach.

We are now fully booked until September, however now is the time when our many regular guests book their favoured dates for the following year. Just £100 deposit now reserves a week in any cottage for next year - e.mail or call at anytime to discuss your requirements, to book or to request our brochure.
