Remember if you just want to relax and unwind our many facilities mean you never need to leave - arrive, park your car and your holiday begins!

Instow Arms

Having now been open for over two years the nearby seafront Instow Arms is as popular as ever with our regular customers, young and old. Open all day, from breakfast to evening dinner, serving freshly cooked local produce, with an extensive list of beverages including real cask ales, local cider and with ever changing sea views a visit during your stay at Combrew is highly recommended. Many stop off en-route whilst enjoying our mountain bikes to explore the nearby famous scenic Tarka Trail, which meanders through the countryside and conveniently has an exit point just near to the Instow Arms! When ever you visit you are sure of good food, a warm welcome and a convivial atmosphere at the Instow Arms.

2014

Although we are only part way through this year our valued regular guests are already booking for next year to ensure that their chosen dates are available. If you have a special occasion to celebrate or wish to book several cottages together for a larger party why not reserve your dates now - tariffs are available online and with an initial deposit of just £100 securing your chosen cottage for a week, now is the time to book to avoid disappointment.
