"Combrew - A Hidden Gem "

Reviewed Nov 6, 2016 for a stay in Sep 2016

We spent a fabulous relaxing week in Courtyard Cottage in September having previously visited in June 2014. The Tucker family, as usual, made you feel really welcome and were on hand should you need anything during the stay. The cottages are so well equipped and prepared that you really want for nothing (apart from the occasional pack of free range eggs). The leisure facilities are second to none and, unlike many other holidays, I actually return home fitter than when I arrived. We will be back again in the near future and, although I wish Sue and the "boys" the best of success with their holiday enterprise, part of me would like it not to be too popular or we might not be able to get a vacancy? Until the next visit??? George family, Cardiff

"Terrific Holiday"

Reviewed Nov 15, 2016 for a stay in Oct 2016

We stayed for October half term in Rose Barn, this was a large and superbly appointed cottage with quality fittings and everything we needed. On site the Pool and Gym are both excellent and the play area with the trampolines and goats helped keep the little ones occupied. This also turned out to be a good base with lots to do in the area and good food nearby, the visitor books are good for recommendations. We would love to return sometime in the future. Instow Barton

Have you long searched for a small, intimate restaurant where superb service and delicious food go hand in hand? Look no further than the nearby Instow Barton – a true gem recently opened by husband and wife team Caroline & Colin Hutchens. Colin lovingly prepares enticing dishes using as much fresh local produce as possible, whilst Caroline takes care of reservations and service. The small menu, which changes weekly, allows great attention to detail and the flavour and the presentation of the food is simply stunning, add in the friendly attentive yet unpretentious service and you have a sure recipe for a night to remember. There is a carefully chosen wine list and upon arrival their complimentary house cocktail is served – a welcome start to what will surely be a memorable evening. Being small and very popular you surely must book well in advance – call Caroline soon to book your evening to remember during your stay at Combrew. www.instowbarton.co.uk , facebook.com/instowbarton t: 01271 860 845 / 07557 224742
